Why get involved

"I am honoured to win the award for outstanding commitment to road safety, as this is something of huge importance to me. To receive recognition for my efforts at such a prestigious event is fantastic, and my commitment to road safety will continue with full force into the future."

Dave Abbott
Technical Director at Cardinus

"Iron Mountain was delighted to receive a prestigious Fleet Safety Forum Award in 2011, and attending the ceremony made for a thoroughly enjoyable evening. I would definitely recommend entering and attending the Awards to anybody within the fleet industry."

Rory Morgan
National Logistics General Manager at Iron Mountain

The Fleet Safety Forum is a division of Brake, the road safety charity. Entirely charitable and not-for-profit, it stops deaths and injuries involving vehicles being driven for work by providing acclaimed road safety information to help companies manage road risk.
